Council may decide, in the interests of transparency, to release information to the public even though it is confidential under the Act provided the release of the information is:

- Not contrary to any law;
- Not in breach of contractual requirements;
- Not likely to cause harm to any person; and
- It is in the public interest to do so.

Public interest test

Council is not required to make information publicly available if the release of the information would be contrary to the public interest, in accordance with Section 58(b)(ii) of the LGA 2020. When considering public interest, Council will apply the test that exists in the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act). Council may refuse to release information if it is satisfied that the harm to the community likely to be created by releasing the information will exceed the public benefit in it being released.

When considering possible harm from releasing information, Council will only concern itself with harm to the community or members of the community. Potential harm to Council will only be a factor if it would also damage the community, such as where it involves a loss of public funds or prevents Council from performing its functions.

Privacy and data protection

Council is not required to make information publicly available that if released would contravene the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014, the Health Records Act 2001 or any other legislation governing personal information collected, held, managed, used, disclosed or transferred by Council.

4.4 Means of access to information

All Council information published for access by the community will be available on Council's website, which will be maintained for use on desktop computers, mobile phones and other devices, and which will be tested to work with most commonly used browsers and operating systems.

All Council information published for access by the community will also be available for inspection upon request at Council's Office, 32 Towong Street, Tallangatta or at 76 Hanson Street, Corryong.

Application to access information

Council will consider all requests for access to Council information made outside the Freedom of Information process in accordance with privacy principles. Information will be provided for free or at low cost, commensurate to the effort to provide it or in accordance with any relevant legislation.

Information may be provided by email and requests for information to be provided in hard copy or mailed to the requestor will be considered.

Freedom of information (FOI)

The FOI Act provides the public with a general right to access documents in the possession of Council relating to their personal affairs or the activities of Council, except where those documents are deemed confidential under legislation.

Council may request that a formal Freedom of Information request is submitted in order to access certain documents. In assessing a Freedom of Information request, Council may consult with third parties where documents contain related information that may be exempt from release under the FOI Act.

Social media

Council will, where beneficial to community engagement, make information publicly available through its social media platforms.

Content accessibility

The Disability Discrimination Act 1992 requires Council to ensure people with a disability have the same access to information and services as others in the community. 4.5 Transparency of Council decisions

Council is empowered by various legislation to make decisions on a broad range of matters on behalf of the local community. Council's decisions are either made by the Council at a formally constituted meeting, or by Council officers under delegated authority of the Council. The Mayor and Councillors do not have the legal authority to individually act or make decisions on behalf of the Council.

Decisions at Council meetings

Decisions made at Council meetings are generally informed by Council reports that are prepared by officers and included in the agendas. Council meeting agendas are made available to the community in advance of each meeting in accordance with Council's Governance Rules, excluding reports that contain confidential information.

In accordance with Section 66 of the LGA 2020, Council and delegated committee meetings will be open to the public unless it is considered necessary to close the meeting:

- To consider confidential information;
- For security reasons;
- To enable the meeting to proceed in an orderly manner;
- Council will, where practicable, live stream its Council meetings to engage a broader audience.

Meetings will be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the LGA 2020 and Council's Governance Rules and will provide opportunity for public participation. All decisions will be recorded in minutes of the meeting.

Delegated decisions

Council may delegate specific powers, duties and functions, including decision-making powers, under various legislation to the Chief Executive Officer and nominated Council employees. Council will maintain a register of delegations in accordance with Sections 11 and 47 of the LGA 2020. Delegates are making decisions as if they were the Council and decision-making processes must be made transparent except where involving information that is confidential.

4.6 Disputes

General requests

If access to Council information is denied, the person making the request has the right to question the decision. A review of the decision will be undertaken in accordance with Council's complaints handling processes. The person making the request has the right to seek further review of Council's decision by the Victorian Ombudsman.

Freedom of Information requests

Under the FOI Act Council decides which documents and information are released. The person making a Freedom of Information request has the right to seek a review of Council's decision by the Victorian Information Commissioner.

4.7 Breaches

Failure to comply with Council policy, supporting procedures or guidelines, will be subject to investigation which may lead to disciplinary action.

Disclosure of confidential information by a person who is, or has been, a Councillor, a member of a delegated committee or a Council employee, is an offence under Section 125 of the LGA 2020.
